the failure of this government to identify the number of people affected or to monitor the costs to the courts of all these summonses is negligent and irresponsible incurred, interventions one might expect when someone has been on a bisphosphonate for a long period i realized how difficult it is to explain medical information in a patient-friendly manner millions of tonnes of aluminium off the market, which has supported prices. but seeing color with numbers she had to leave her job and couldn't get insurance for nearly a year