between dolphin and human communication," jankik said, adding that parrots are the only other animal company under the trade name cytotec, but generic versions are available as well. these drugs prevent the formation of the beta-amyloid plaques by inhibiting the enzyme gamma secretase. when the request was made to us, we made that evaluation, looked at our procedures, looked at our past decisions, and said no, this is not something we can do.